Direct Tuition Newsletter – November 2013

An online version of this newsletter is available http://www.direct-tuition.com/parents/news/

Holidays

There will be holiday on Sunday November 3rd and Monday November 4th as many students have requested a holiday for these two days.

Contract

A few parents have still not returned the learning contracts; please can you do so immediately. Alternatively, you can sign and date the contract online by visiting http://bit.ly/DT-contract

Homework Scores

Parents who have already returned their contracts will be receiving details on how they can access their child's homework results online in the next few days. I will only be giving this information directly to the parents so you will need to come and see us when you drop off or pick up your children.

Recommend a Tutor

We are always looking for good quality staff but one of our main problems is finding them. Should you know a relative or friend that may be interested in working for us, please ask them and contact us. If we then recruit them, we will pay you a reward of £100 once they have taught classes for us for at least 2 months.

Requirements:

- Must be a qualified teacher, trainee teacher or retired teacher
- Must be able to work at least two hours per week on the same day
- We currently require teachers for Science and Maths but will welcome teachers for English and Primary as we always get enquiries for people looking for one-to-one tuition too.

Online Webinar Lessons

Our online classes will begin on Friday November 15th and we will be running classes for Core 1 Maths (weekly), AS-Level Applied Maths (fortnightly) and GCSE Further Maths (fortnightly). Please email us for a timetable of lessons on info@direct-tuition.com

Competitions

We will be having regular competitions throughout the year which are open to everyone (students, parents or anyone else) which will usually be logical problems aimed at getting students to think a little outside the box, the current competition can be found here or on our Facebook page. The winner will be selected at random from all correct entries and receive a £10 voucher of their choice. To have a greater chance of winning, why not get your friends and family to enter too. You don't need to be a student at Direct Tuition to enter.

Recommend a Friend

If you have any friends or family that may be interested in attending tuition, please get them to call us or complete our recommend a friend form and we will contact them. You and your friend will receive a free lesson and if your friend decides to start tuition; you will also receive £15 reward after they attend four lessons (friend must attend the free lesson by November 30th). From December 1st, this reward will be reduced to £10.

As an additional incentive, the student who refers the most students by February 28th 2014 will receive a prize of a new Apple iPad Mini (can be substituted for an Android tablet if preferred)

On the top right is a current league table, you receive one point for each family you recommend to us. If you are on the league table, you will have had an email from us already. So far the score to beat to win the Apple iPad Mini is 1 recommendation.

Student of the Month

We would like to congratulate our first ever student of the month Dev Parekh.

Dev has been a student of Direct Tuition since year 9 (2008) and this summer has just completed his A-Levels and begun University. He completed his A-Level Maths course by scoring 100% UMS marks in almost all of his modules. He will be receiving a trophy and an Amazon voucher for his achievements.

Direct Tuition would like to thank Dev for his hard work over the last few years and wish him the best of luck at the University of Manchester where he is studying a degree in Physics.

Fees

A quick reminder about fees, payment for the month MUST be made on the first lesson of every month. Payment can be made by either cheque or cash. If paying by cheque, it must be for at least £50 otherwise there will be a £2 surcharge. Please note you must give at least 7 days notice of absences to avoid being charged.
